Everything about this Drama

Note: this is not an apology post, because I have no responsibility to apologize to anyone other than the victim of this incident.
This post will list out what happened between me and V (victim), and also about the server admin/mod team (because they are the ones who accused me).

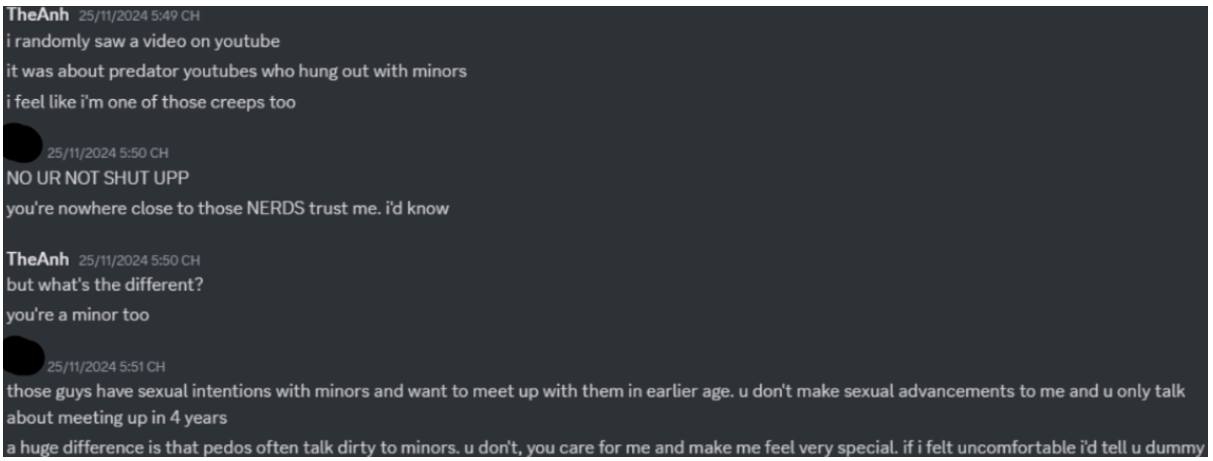
A few months ago, V and I met through the 2OO2 server and became close friends after frequently playing games together in the server's VC, along with the entire team of admins and mods. After that, V invited me to download the game Sky to play together, and it was from this point that V and I became closer. Besides playing games, V and I often chatted on Discord, and I frequently talked to V about my personal and daily problems. I know it wasn't normal at all because V was only 14 years old at the time, because of that, V didn't judge the things I told her, which made me closer to V and want to maintain this relationship. I'm not trying to justify this because it was completely wrong and could have negatively affected V's mental and emotion.

After a while, V brought up the idea of dating while we were playing a game. Instead of blocking or completely ending the relationship like I should have, I kept things going and didn't outright reject V. I only said that we should wait until we're both of age. This was another mistake of mine—trying to maintain the relationship instead of cutting off contact with V entirely.

Due to many people currently making false accusations about me, I want to emphasize a few points:
1/ V and I have never dated or become boyfriend/girlfriend. The screenshots showing messages where I called V "gf" are real, but they lack proper context. If V and I were actually dating already, there wouldn't be any reason for me to tell V to wait. In reality, during the last few weeks when we were still texting, I allowed joking around by calling each other "gf" and "bf." Evidence that those instances were jokes:

The fact that it was just a joke doesn't make it acceptable, as it was completely wrong and went against common moral standards. This was yet another mistake I made and it's very bad.

2/ V and I have never chatted about or joked about anything obscene or sexual. This was one of the topics I strictly forbade when we were still friends.
V has personally confirmed this:



TheAnh 25/11/2024 5:49 CH
i randomly saw a video on youtube
it was about predator youtubes who hung out with minors
i feel like i'm one of those creeps too
25/11/2024 5:50 CH
NO UR NOT SHUT UPP
you're nowhere close to those NERDS trust me. i'd know TheAnh 25/11/2024 5:50 CH
but what's the different?
you're a minor too
25/11/2024 5:51 CH
those guys have sexual intentions with minors and want to meet up with them in earlier age. u don't make sexual advancements to me and u only talk about meeting up in 4 years a huge difference is that pedos often talk dirty to minors. u don't, you care for me and make me feel very special. if i felt uncomfortable i'd tell u dummy

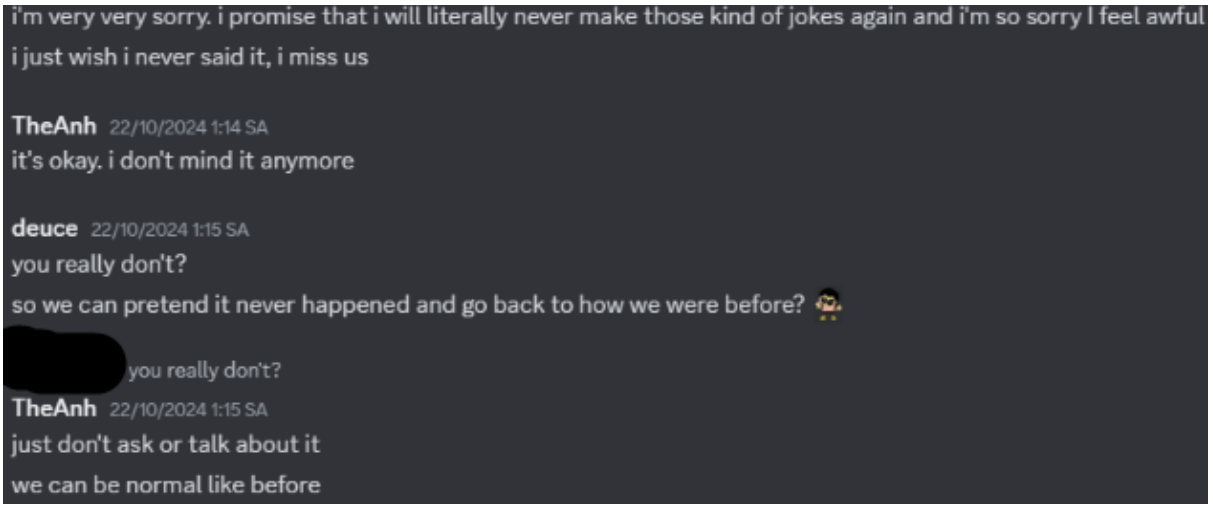
21/10/2024 2:24 SA
NO I'M SORRY
TheAnh 21/10/2024 2:25 SA
told u so many times
not those kind of jokes
21/10/2024 2:30 SA
anh forgive me plz I'm sorry



i'm very very sorry. i promise that i will literally never make those kind of jokes again and i'm so sorry I feel awful
i just wish i never said it, i miss us
TheAnh 22/10/2024 1:14 SA
it's okay. i don't mind it anymore
deuce 22/10/2024 1:15 SA
you really don't?
so we can pretend it never happened and go back to how we were before?
you really don't?
TheAnh 22/10/2024 1:15 SA
just don't ask or talk about it we can be normal like before

This is when V accidentally joked about those things while playing Sky.

If you still insist on labeling me as a pedo and groomer, you should review the definition of the term. Pedo is a very serious accusation, referring to individuals who are sexually attracted to or engage in sexual acts with children. Grooming is the act of building trust and luring young victims for sexual purposes.

pedophilia, in conventional usage, a psychosexual disorder, generally affecting adults, characterized by sexual interest in prepubescent children or attempts to engage in sexual acts with prepubescent children. The groom verb [T] (CRIME) to become friends with a child with the intention of trying to persuade the child to have a sexual relationship

Going back to the story, while texting with V, I was aware that what I was doing wasn't right. Because of that, I tried a few times to create some distance between us and avoid being too close. V agreed, and for a while, we toned things down. However, after a short time, everything went back to the way it was. As I mentioned earlier, I should have chosen to cut off contact entirely to resolve this issue once and for all. But I hesitated because I still wanted to keep the relationship and still wanted to remain friends with V—to share daily stories, play games, and draw together. V didn't do anything wrong in this situation because I was the one who could have ended this relationship at any time. In the end, I tried another approach to ensure that V and I could remain just normal friends without any romantic involvement. I started messaging V less and spent more time chatting with other girl members in the server so that V would think I liked someone else and give up the romantic thing. As a result, things seemed to work, but this was still the wrong approach because at that time, I didn't realize how much V would be hurt and upset until V confided in me. Later, V said they wanted to tell others about what happened. At first, I was confused and kept asking why, but eventually, I accepted it because I knew that what I had done was wrong..

I apologized to V right then and there, and after that, I have no responsibility to apologize to anyone outside of the situation.

yeah, i apologize for that too
i just wanted to make you say it first. but i didn't know it would become this bad

Regarding the joke about "living in your belly," everyone has made it look like a sexual thing, but the context of the joke was this: V and I had created fictional characters for each other. My character was a tiny crocodile, and V's was a giant lynx-sheep hybrid. We often drew pictures and joked about it.

V: I want to eat you
A: I'm in your belly.

As for the accusation that I was upset because V didn't play games with me, that's completely twisted and distorted (of course, the messages were always cut to make me look bad). Specifically, I had invited V to play games multiple times, V agreed, but then changed their mind without letting me know, leaving me waiting in the game. The first few times this happened, I didn't say anything to V, but when it kept happening, I'm sure anyone in this situation would have been frustrated. :))

Now I will focus on the admin/mod team of my server. The reason is that they are the ones accusing me of being a pedophile. If they are truly innocent, I have no reason to target them. And don't say that I'm trying to shift the blame onto others, because I've already taken responsibility and there's nothing left to blame on anyone else. If the purpose of this drama is to protect children, I will further strengthen that point with more truths:))

The boss of this team is Eclipse, 16 years old, and the rest of Eclipse's friends are adults, all 18 and older, including Joonie, Roflcat, and Sim—all three are male.

Eclipse and their friends could have been Chris Hansens if they hadn't invited V into their private chat, where they made many sexual jokes directed at V. I used to be a member of this group because its original purpose was not to sexting, but after seeing the grown men constantly saying dirty jokes like "I want to touch/tickle your hole", I got annoyed and left the group. At the same time, some members also sent pictures of penis (real one) right in that private chat group even though they knew that V (14 years old) was also reading those messages 😀

Not stopping there, Eclipse once had a server full of porn (including animal sex like humans with rats and chickens) that E was so proud of and decided to invite V in. Regardless of age, distributing explicit content to children is considered illegal. Eclipse also confirmed herself:

.Eclipse. Today at 2:46 CH
I know me sending porn to minors was wrong now. I didn't know this was illegal before, I know now and I admit I am doing something illegal by sending NSFW to other people my age.

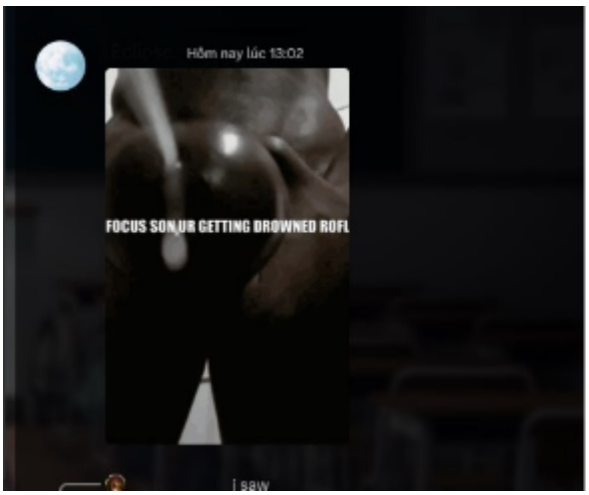
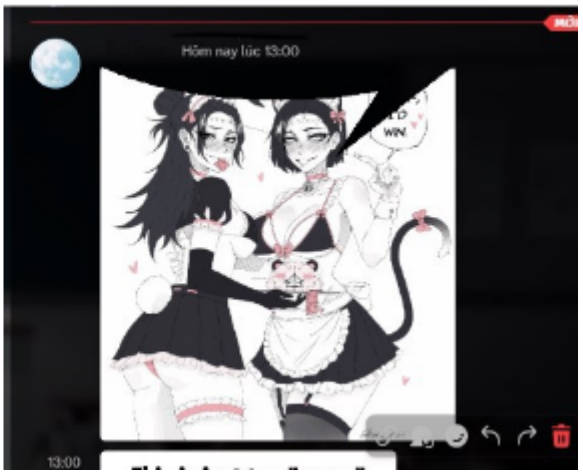
“people my age” not really. V was 14 and she was 16. Also, don't use the excuse "I don't know the law".

Of course, that's not all, because my server was almost entirely managed by Eclipse, E also created a private Voice Chat for her friends and sent a lot of obscene, uncensored content there, even related to child:

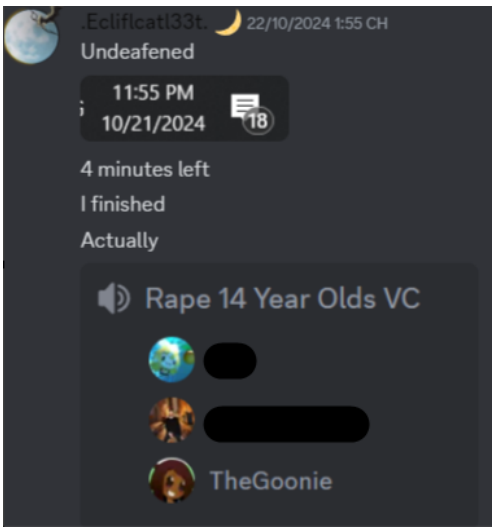
Here is a gif of a baby bouncing his butt on a man's face with the context “NNN”.





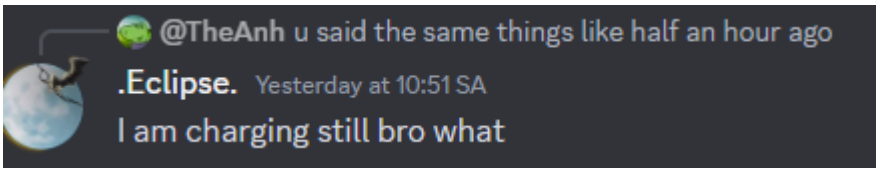
After each time E and her friends left Voice Chat, I deleted quite many of messages containing vulgar images for them (above are the remaining ones), I also regretted not reporting them right away because there was a time when I and them were close friends.

Another sexual joke aimed directly at V to humiliate V in front of everyone:



her rape joke with V and few other people.

When I asked Eclipse to let me rejoin the private group chat to prove the staff's innocence, I was denied. After that, I asked Eclipse to record the chat messages from the time before I left the group. Eclipse agreed but kept making excuses to delay, and eventually disappeared entirely without providing me with any evidence.

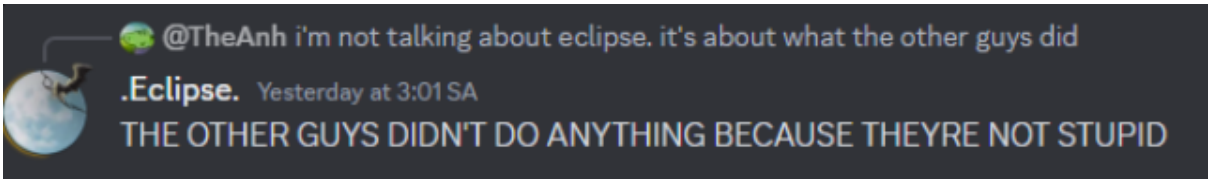


Even though she said she was charging the battery, E was still chatting on another channel.

Hi everyone! Eclipse here. I will be ignoring the drama now, I apologize for anything I've done that is confirmed to be true, I am very sorry, this is my official apology as I don't have much social media. I'm sorry this has gone this far, I will be focusing on school and chatting normally in a different server since I don't want to stress my school life with this drama. Goodbye for now.

She used the excuse of wanting to focus on school and left the server, "forgetting" to provide evidence. At night, she rejoined the server and continued chatting as if nothing had happened.

Another notable member of the staff is Joonie (also known by other nicknames like Goonie or Adminoonie—if the name includes "oonie," it's him). Eclipse has repeatedly claimed that her friends didn't do anything wrong and are not pedophiles.



@TheAnh i'm not talking about eclipse. it's about what the other guys did .Eclipse. Yesterday at 3:01 SA
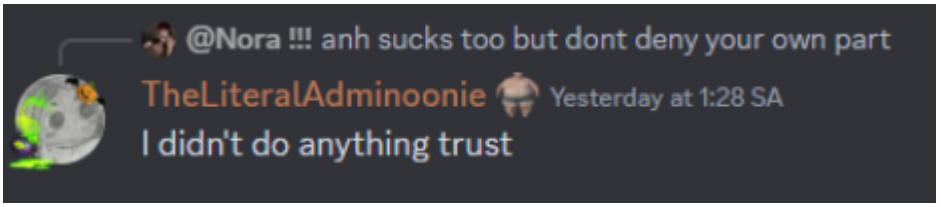
THE OTHER GUYS DIDN'T DO ANYTHING BECAUSE THEYRE NOT STUPID



Since I'm no longer in the private group chat, I don't have evidence of Joonie making sex jokes to V. However, unlucky for Joonie, V isn't the only minor Joonie has sexually approached. (The names of the victims will not be disclosed publicly but will be provided to the involved people, like Joonie, if they need it.)

Joonie texted a 14 year old girl privately and sent this.

Thank you Eclipse. Thanks to your help, I'll now groom kids so that they will defend me no matter what It's quite funny that they were the ones who screamed and accused me when V made the "eat you" joke to me and said it was pedo and weird.

At least your childhood didn't have an adult game developer try to diddle you

In the past, I was very close to and trusted Joonie. Similar to the case with V, because I valued and trusted them, I confided in them about my past of being abused by my father. I never expected Joonie to make fun of it in front of others, even making the final joke slightly vulgar. Honestly, this is one of the things I'm most disappointed about with them.

I also asked V if she found what Eclipse's team was doing to them unusual. V said it was just joking around and didn't care about their age or the people who were taking advantage of them. V also threatened to tell others about what happened between us because I targeted their "good friends," but ofc I didn't beg or try to stop her. :)) If they want to tell anyone, let them, because I know that I'm not entirely in the right either.

In this entire drama, except for V, everyone else is in the wrong, but not everyone has the courage to admit that it was wrong or warn V that it was wrong. Because I knew very well that getting involved with someone younger isn't a good thing, I warned V and advised them to put aside any romantic feelings and focus on being normal friends as much as possible.

I think we should stop this kind of relationship. It's not really stable and healthy, and not right neither the Nire thing just won't work. It still feels very weird
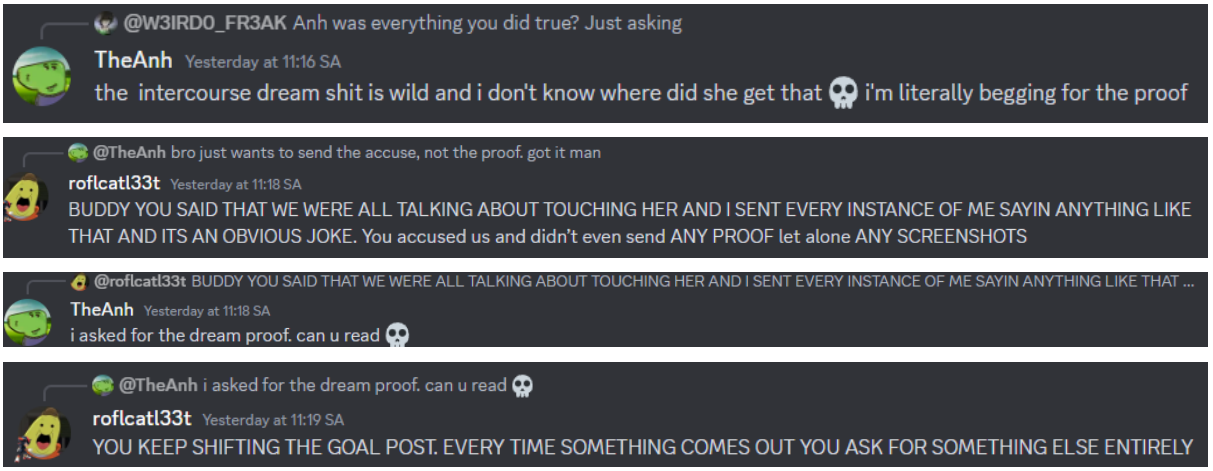
We can be normal to each other like we did months ago. It makes me feel more comfortable and don't have to think too much about it every night.
Your mindset will also change a lot when you're grown up. You will see that i was always right about this.
If you still want something more than friendship between us, you can wait. And I can wait too.
Hope you will understand this for me,

In contrast to me, the Eclipse team never seemed to tell V that their sex jokes with children were not okay, so V never seemed to realize it and just saw everything as a normal thing between friends. Worse still, many people in the community chose to ignore the abuse of the Eclipse team just to direct all the accusations of pedo towards me. I don't understand what people are really fighting for, because the "protectors of children" themselves have also committed incomprehensible actions.

Eclipse's team has also made several false accusations against me:

They claimed that I fantasized about having intercourse with V. However, when I and other members pleaded and asked them for evidence, they avoided the topic entirely and didn't provide any proof.



@W3IRD0_FR3AK Anh was everything you did true? Just asking

The thing I personally deleted was the Mod/Admin role of this group, because I didn't want them to delete or destroy it anymore.
